DESCRIPTION

The Camaleonda model, designed by Mario Bellini in 1970, is an iconic and revolutionary sofa, renowned for its modular design and generous forms. Composed of independent modules, it allows for endless reconfiguration, offering exceptional flexibility to adapt to any space.

The soft cushions rest on a low structure, and its curved, organic lines create a warm and inviting atmosphere. The sofa is covered in its original multicolored fabric with a tropical leaf pattern, showing signs of wear and restoration.
