DESCRIPTION

Clam Box in moulded plastic designed by Alan Fletcher in the late 1960s, published by Mebel in Italy. Made of two identical interlocking shells, this piece blends simple lines with a bold pop aesthetic. The red and white contrast enhances its playful, symmetrical shape, inspired by Edam cheese. This example shows slight fading of the red colour over time, without affecting its graphic impact.

Signed under the base: "Mebel, Italy, des. A. Fletcher".

Italy, circa 1970
