

Floor lamp by Jacques Grange for Yves Saint Laurent, Maison Meilleur 1980

Sold

REF: 7516

Height: 185 cm (72.8")

Diameter: 32 cm (12.6")

DESCRIPTION

Floor lamp designed by Jacques Grange in the 1980s for Yves Saint Laurent boutiques. Its slender gunmetal-finish metal stem rises from a circular base to a bowl-shaped reflector, projecting indirect light upwards.

Produced by Maison Meilleur, a Parisian workshop founded in 1921 by Charles Meilleur (École Boulle), renowned for its craftsmanship and collaborations with leading decorators such as François Catroux, Pierre Yovanovitch and the Pinto studio.

Manufacturer: Maison Meilleur, France, circa 1980

Good vintage condition, minor wear consistent with age. Electrically tested.