DESCRIPTION

Rectangular table with a thick top designed by Charlotte Perriand in the 1970s.

Originally conceived to furnish the La Nova residence at Les Arcs 1800, this table features a laminated solid pine rectangular top supported by two "Duck" legs made of black lacquered metal with a bent return. Its robust construction and clean lines make it a perfect blend of functionality and elegance.

Provenance: La Nova residence, Les Arcs 1800, France, circa 1978.
