DESCRIPTION

Set of two Pétale model low tables, published by Seltz around 1978.

Each tripod element takes on a petal shape in solid elm, with soft, generous curves. The two modules can be used separately or combined into a single table, offering great versatility. The warm elm grain and the straightforward construction reflect the spirit of French furniture from the 1970s, blending sturdiness with formal freedom.

Manufacturer: Seltz, circa 1978.
