DESCRIPTION

Knock Knock Screen Printing by Roy Lichtenstein

Created in 1975, Roy Lichtenstein's Knock Knock screen printing is a black and white artwork, characteristic of his comic strip-inspired style.

The image depicts a slightly open door accompanied by the inscription "KNOCK KNOCK" in capital letters, referencing classic "Knock Knock Jokes" while playing with the visual language of comic art.

Lichtenstein employs sharp, contrasting lines here, enhancing the visual impact through a minimalist approach. The absence of color emphasizes the simplicity of the motif and the strength of the message, in a piece that balances humor and artistic reflection - illustrating Lichtenstein's ability to transform everyday elements into iconic pop art creations.

This screen printing was produced on paper.

Provenance: Private collection.
