DESCRIPTION

Lounge chair, Bauche model No.19, designed by Charlotte Perriand and manufactured by Steph Simon in the 1950s. This chair epitomizes Perriand's vision, seamlessly blending modernism with the essence of nature.

Crafted entirely from ash wood, the chairs feature a structure with four rounded legs connected by spacers, cradling a seat and back expertly woven from straw.

Preserving their original allure, these chairs are in great condition with a charming patina that enhances their appeal.

Manufacturer: Steph Simon, circa 1950.
