DESCRIPTION

Pierre Guariche conceived these versatile sofa beds for the La Plagne ski resort in the French Alps, showcasing their remarkable practicality.

Crafted entirely from plywood and cream-white laminate, they come with an under-bed storage drawer, providing space for an additional sleeping arrangement, and a shorter drawer to transform them into a corner sofa. The mattress has been lovingly restored and adorned with a vibrant red-orange wool sheet from Nobilis, perfectly embodying the spirit of the era.

Originating from La Plagne, a ski destination greatly impacted by Guariche's influence during the 1960s.

Sleeping dimensions: 185 * 74 cm

Manufacturer : Negrone, circa 1968.
