DESCRIPTION

An iconic design by Charlotte Perriand, this stool was conceived in the 1950s to furnish the Meribel ski resort in the French Alps.

This particular piece is an early edition, sourced directly from the resort.

The structure, made of black-stained ash, features four rounded legs connected by an X-shaped stretcher, supporting a curved straw seat.

Seat height: 41 cm

Manufacturer: Steph Simon, from 1950 onward.
