

Spherical ceramic vase by Edouard Chapallaz, circa 1970

Edouard Chapallaz

150

REF: 6471

Height: 8.5 cm (3.3")

Diameter: 11 cm (4.3")

DESCRIPTION

Vase by Edouard Chapallaz, the renowned Swiss ceramist who significantly impacted 20th-century design with his unique creations. Born in 1921, his works blend tradition and modernity, emphasizing organic shapes and natural textures.

This vase, featuring a flattened spherical form with a gently flared neck, rests on a porcelain foot with a celadon glaze and subtle craquelure.

Circa 1970
Signed underneath
Stamp: Chapallaz Duillier