DESCRIPTION

A true representation of 1970s design, this rare triple lamp "Manta" model was conceived by Franco Bresciani for Harvey Guzzini during the 1970s.

Crafted with three black iron bases (one circular and two semi-circular, providing creative modularity), it ascends with grace through three chromed rods, crowned by translucent white plastic lampshades. Linked together, they can be illuminated individually.

With an original aesthetic, this piece will become a focal point within your interior.
