DESCRIPTION

Tambour cabinet designed by Klaus Vogt in the 1970s, produced by Thut Möbel AG.

This distinctive cabinet features a white lacquered plywood frame paired with a Scobalit tambour door, a lightweight yet durable polyester material that slides smoothly to reveal the interior. Inside, two adjustable shelves provide versatile storage options, allowing for a functional and flexible organization tailored to various needs.

Its balanced proportions and minimalist aesthetic make it a practical yet elegant addition, adding a refined touch of 1970s vintage design to any space.

Manufacturer : Thut Möbel AG, Switzerland, circa 1970.
