DESCRIPTION

Bedside table in bent plywood with white laminate finish, designed by Pierre Guariche for the La Plagne ski apartments in the late 1960s.

Its U-shaped construction and veneered wood crossbar embody Guariche's focus on simple, modular, and affordable furniture suited to collective interiors. This design reflects his architectural approach - functional, rational, and warm in its material expression.

Origin: La Plagne.

Manufacturer: Negroni, circa 1968.
