DESCRIPTION

Designed by Pierre Guariche, this versatile table seamlessly transitions between a coffee table and a desk.

It features two rectangular supports connected by crossbars, all crafted from solid pine, and a white laminated plywood top. The design allows for easy adjustment of its function: simply flip the legs to switch between a low coffee table and a higher desk.

Provenance: La Plagne, the ski resort where Guariche made notable contributions in the 1960s.

Height in coffee table position: 15.75 inches.

Manufacturer: Negroni, circa 1968.
