DESCRIPTION

Mahogany dining table and two benches, mountain work, circa 1960.

Made of solid mahogany, this table features a simple rectangular top and slightly splayed legs joined by a central stretcher, ensuring stability and strength. The two matching benches echo the same construction and reflect the convivial and functional spirit of 1960s mountain furniture.

A sturdy yet elegant set, designed to endure and accompany everyday life.

Each bench measures 63 in with a seat height of 17.7 in, comfortably accommodating 4 people.

France, circa 1960.
